Dulles Cites Discontent In Soviet

NEW YORK — Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, says Soviet rulers fear more than anything else the desire of their own people for freedom. "We can and must exploit," this fear, Dulles added in a speech at the annual New York Herald Tribune forum. He advised against underestimating the material and spiritual superiority of the free world. He noted that in five years 1,800,000 persons have fled to freedom from Soviet East Germany and 250,000 recently chose to leave Communist Viet Nam. (AP)
